

K-Love has served my family and I faithfully for many years. We need a positive and encouraging station like K-Love instead of another talk, news or sports station. We have enough of these! All voices should be heard on radio, including a Christian voice. We do not want K-Love to be replaced by a LPFM station. Thank you for your consideration. Marie Longo & Family